Problems face all students. Problems in studies or social life can be solved so many ways: by counselors, a friend, a teacher.

Students have no fear of asking; the lines of communication are always open in Trenton High School, between everyone.

competence
competition
companionship

Working at optimum ability is essential. School fosters this by stressing perfection in everyday activities and projects. Striving for perfection develops a strong mind and intensifies character building. Contests may be difficult, and one's opposition might be a friend, but the strong will remain and friendships will strengthen.

conversation
co-operation

Students find diversion from classes by entertaining, discussing, studying, and eating. All voluntarily participate in the classroom as well as organizations.

Don't be misled, academics are stressed, but fun goes with it. Close relations with everyone is the pride of THS.

A season never to be repeated: our first year in the NCMC conference. Triumph and disaster- a mixture found in no other sport to the extent as in football.

The schedule started giving Trenton the chance of breaking even, but Savannah came and behold! -a four-year losing streak was broken; the score 19-10.

Game three, crucial for setting the season's pattern, Macon and a powerhouse showing, the outcome-Bulldogs: 26-Tigers 6. The Trenton machine continued to steam roll by defeating Kirksville 31-7.

Then showdown time came, and the team put forth its best effort in a losing game: THS 0-Marshall -16. Bouncing back from this jolt, Trenton defeated Marceline in their homecoming 20-0. Disappointment for the Bulldogs at the hands of the Moberly Spartans 34-2 blew the chances of winning the conference.

Homecoming found THS the victor, erasing last year's bitter memories of Brookfield. The score 7-0. Finally, the biggest surprise of the 71 season--a near-upset victory for the Dogs, after five years, over the Chillicothe Hornets. Only an error in execution cost a victory here; the final score of the season read 8-16, Bulldogs on the short side.

As an over-all season THS can be proud of a team effort that proved again what a determined group can accomplish despite the odds.

Bulldog fans and players alike enjoyed an excellent and exciting season which ended in an 18-8 win-lose record. Despite the number of games lost, the Bulldog team dropped only one contest to a Class M team, Kansas City St. Pius X in the State Tournament, with all other losses coming at the hands of Class L schools.

By capturing the Trenton Tournament and the Maryville Regional Tournament, the Bulldogs started and ended the season with a trophy.

This year's squad was only the fourth team in THS history to win a regional tournament and enter state competition.

By losing only one player to graduation, Trenton's hopes for basketball power in 1972-73 are indeed bright.

A young group of boys filled the roster for the wrestling team this year. Only seven seniors were on a squad made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores.

The varsity; led by seniors Dave Briegel and Rich Brummitt fought their way to a 5-4-1 record in duel competition as well as fourth place finishes in the Conference and the Marceline Tournaments.

The J.V's went 7-3 for their season and captured third at the NMC'B' team tournament.

Over all this season was not a success, but a better record is anticipated with a more experienced team next year.

Missouri

to you mrs. volk

nor will you forget
second hour study hall.

or the time you received the spirit stick award during the homecoming assembly.

The dedication of this years yearbook can only represent a small portion of the affection and high regard held by all who have worked alongside you, or benefitted from your tutorship. On behalf of them all, we the staff thank you.

pause to remember the band's appreciation for your directing half-time announcements.

then again there were those few quiet moments spent in planning yet another publication.

and of course all the time spent in personnel conferences insuring this year's tawana would be a success.
